Harmony Council Holds First Meeting

At the first meeting of the Harmony Council on March 13th, A. J. Miller was appointed reeve and E. H. Griffin deputy reeve. McCannal Bros. were retained as auditors. Coun. Fitzpatrick was appointed delegate to the hall convention, and the municipal scales were sold to Duquesne & Vanbesien. The secretary was instructed to endeavor to make arrangements with the Public Petroleum Co. to handle weed killer for the council during the summer. Regular meeting dates were arranged and accounts passed.

Roads running east and west have presented difficulties in the way of muddy spots and bad ruts since the last storm. A few fine days, however, should remove the ice and snow reasonably.

Dramatic Society Makes Big Hit

The Reid Hill dramatic society is to be congratulated upon their presentation of "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" in the Community Hall on Friday evening. The well balanced cast avoided the usual pitfalls of amateur organizations of the kind, and the stage management was also highly creditable. A full hall was a decided incentive to the players, and they evidently rose to the occasion, as no better pleased audience has been seen here for some time. The opportunities presented by the comedy were taken full advantage of by the cast as a whole, with details such as costumes and scenery showed ability and taste in selection that helped wonderfully in the successful issue. The members of Blusson Ladies Aid are to be congratulated on giving their community an opportunity to hear and see so gifted an organization as the Reid Hill group, and everyone will hope for more of this splendid kind of entertainment.

An Appreciation of The Presentation

(Contributed.) On Friday evening the people of Champion vicinity enjoyed an artistic treat when the Reid Hill Dramatic Society presented "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" in the Community hall.

The leading parts were taken by Mr. Todd and Mrs. Ross Walker. The presentation of the character, Mr. Temple, by Mr. Todd was worthy of a Drew or a Barrymore and Mrs. Walker as Mrs. Temple was able at all times by tone and expression to cleverly interpret a difficult and exacting part.

Mr. Boyd McKay in the strenuous double role of Frank Fuller and John Brown suggested that familiarity and mastery of the dramatic art are not incompatible with a knowledge of wheatland plows and summerfallow.

In the characters of Dorothy and Captain Sharpe, Miss Le Beau as the winsome maiden and Mr. Patton as the gallant lover took many of the audience to days and scenes far removed from Champion community hall.

The part of Mrs. Fuller was handled with artistic skill by Miss Fulton, while Mr. Lockhart as the butler and Mr. Bruce McKay and Miss Bowie as the real Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Rikleton brought many laughs and much applause from the audience.

Mrs. Smith the director is certainly to be congratulated upon bringing her company to such artistic and dramatic perfection.

Now the question arises, why should Champion or any other Alberta town for that matter, pay out hundreds of dollars every year to organizations that take the money out of this province, when local talent can give as good if not better entertainment than they receive from outside sources.

A number of O.E.S. members attended the meeting of the Carmangay chapter on Tuesday the occasion being the official visit of Miss Isaac, Worthy Grand Matron of the order.

The second story of the Mark building is being plastered and otherwise made ready for tenants.

Departing Citizens Receive Gifts

At the regular meeting of the B.F.O.E. on Tuesday evening the occasion was taken to present Clark Rhodes with a pair of military brushes, prior to his departure for Conhurst. Mr. Rhodes had been secretary of the lodge during the past year and had proven an efficient official. Mrs. Rhodes was also presented with a comfort by the ladies of the Royal Purple of which lodge she had been an active member since its inception. Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes have been popular citizens here and their departure is generally regretted.

Okotoks Play Sat. March 28

Under the auspices of Champion Elks, the Okotoks young people will present a play entitled "The Second Pancake," in the community hall on Saturday night, March 28th. The company, which is under the direction of Mrs. Stout, made a wonderful hit when presented in Okotoks, and there is no doubt this play will be appreciated here. Between acts special vocal and instrumental music will fill the gaps. The program is guaranteed to chase the blues away, and you are requested to come prepared for a good laugh.

Cheering News From R. Tyler

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. Tyler will be pleased to hear that the former has made a wonderful improvement of late and has intentions of returning to Champion towards fall all should be continue making progress. It is understood Mrs. Tyler has found the London fog highly inferior to Alberta's climate, and would not be averse to a trip back to sunny Alberta.

Champion Theatre Will Be Re-opened

Will Handle Montana Ranch

A party was held at I. H. Fisher's on Wednesday, the occasion being a farewell to Mr. and Mrs. O. H. McCumber, who were leaving for Cascade, Montana, on Thursday, where Mr. McCumber will take charge of a ranch. It is understood the residence just completed has been rented to W. Davis.

Speaking before the Canadian Club in Montreal, E. J. Garland, federal member for Bow River, drew a harrowing picture of conditions in Alberta and Saskatchewan. According to the report he classified the majority of the farmers as already bankrupt and the remainder well on the way with prospects of any recovery practically hopeless. There seems to be a wide diversity of opinion between Mr. Garland and the members of the Alberta legislature, in regard to the situation.

After spending a few days in Calgary, where he was convalescing after his recent severe illness, G. F. Smith entered the Holy Cross hospital and is reported as making satisfactory progress there.

Pleasant Send-Off Miss Racher

Miss Racher, who is shortly to take up training in the Calgary General hospital, was given a hearty send off by a number of young people at her home on Tuesday evening. Court whist was played, first honors going to Miss Racher and J. Fath, and the consolation to Miss Freda Bastin and R. Ohlbeiser. Miss Racher was the recipient of many good wishes for success in the training she is undertaking.

NOTES AND COMMENT

The attitude of the U.F.A. government at Edmonton toward expenditure of public funds is so far removed from the farm idea that one can scarcely help but wonder how the farmers can be led into unwavering support of their leaders. While the farmers have reduced wages and their own expenditure to the limit, and in many cases will hire no help at all until the price situation mends, the government find it impossible to reduce services or salaries in any direction, and cheerfully announce a deficit for the coming year, which in the end means more taxes. The expenditures on roads are all for trunk lines, which some farmers undoubtedly use, but which are thronged with buses, trucks and commercial cars of every description, largely in competition with the railroads. Then the legislature is unanimous in requesting a lowering of freight rates to Vancouver. That is passing the buck with a vengeance. Because the railroads have more reason for maintaining services on which they are losing money than the government has for maintaining salaries of its members and employees and general expenditures at the peak reached when the country was prosperous. A farmer who said "I have built up and trained my staff of hired help and cannot reduce it in numbers or rate of pay," would be considered crazy. The same policy on the part of legislators is "statesmanship." Is it any wonder the farming industry is repeatedly in need of assistance from outside sources?

The Calgary Herald has issued a pamphlet in which the "Minnesota Plan" is outlined. This is an effort with a revolving fund on the principle of the Bessy plan to add live stock to the farms, the diversification effected having proved very satisfactory, according to the conclusions arrived at. At the same time it is only a short time ago that authorities in the United States had reached the conclusion that dairy stock should be reduced 10 per cent or over-production would make the production of milk and milk products unprofitable. While other lines of live stock are also included in the Minnesota Plan it will be noted that the production of milk holds a very large place in the success claimed for it.

Pool authorities seem to think there is more than the usual venom in attacks upon their organization by the grain companies. But has there ever been any idea on the part of the pool except patting the grain companies out of business even to the unnecessary duplication of elevators?

The speech from the throne would indicate that the government has already helped to a great extent in disposing of Canadian wheat and securing returns for the same, and intends continuing its efforts along these lines. There may be some justification for this assumption, but unfortunately the price has been the lowest it ever was and seems inclined to remain there, despite the government's intervention.

The Vancouver Province (Conservative) and the Winnipeg Free Press (Liberal), agree that the refusal of the Canadian government to deal with Russia is the most asinine thing ever perpetrated by any government anywhere. The articles are so much alike and the conclusions drawn so similar that one man might easily have written both. The idea that Canada is taking moral attitudes in this matter is ridiculous, and the action taken upon the request for $10,000,000 of implements, to be paid for by two-thirds gold and one-third anthracite coal, as practically childish. It is pointed out that if every nation refused to sell goods to trade rivals, the whole bottom would fall out of world commerce. In the present instance the probabilities are that the United States will furnish the goods required, or some other country will, on terms less satisfactory than those offered Canada. Stores is also put on the fact that Canada has no scruples in purchasing some $20,000,000 or $30,000,000 worth of anthracite coal from the States, but was opposed to Canadian miners in accepting $3,333,000 worth of the coal from Russia.

If the dawn of good times was here, or if it was in immediate prospect, why would those who are attempting to proclaim the turn of the tide have to go so far afield for signs of the change. All our statesmen and financiers are very confident of the future, but that is so indefinite, and may be so far away that hope in waiting for it might easily make the heart sick. The country is not going to stop because of the present set back, and a constant harping on good times just around the corner is not necessary. The economies forced by present conditions may well prepare the people for the long, prolonged period of difficult financing.

Crop Conditions in Europe

Here, that is to say, in Europe, weather conditions have not been favorable up to the present in a general way. The weather has been too mild and the winter insufficiently severe which has had two bad consequences: First, the insects and outworn which have been in the ground, have not been killed by the frost as they should have been, and they can work damage during the next weeks. Secondly, because of the mild weather, the growth of the vegetation this year will be in advance of the average of other years, and if frosts should come in March, it could be very harmful and necessitate considerable reseedling.—Paris Correspondent Searle Grain Co.

Bolshevism is a faith as well as being a theory, and among the generation of Russians now growing up it seems to have something of the moral force of a religion. Hence it may be said the Russian people are making themselves martyrs to a cause. Russia's rulers feed her people on the belief that the wicked world outside is planning a Holy War on Communism. There will be agreement with this statement in what the previous trial and what is now going on told to prove.—Lethbridge Herald.

Dr. Hector MacLeod, professor of electrical engineering, University of Alberta, will address the boards of Calgary, Lethbridge and Medicine Hat on the subject "The Way of Science."

Suggests Solution For Unemployment

Speaking in the British Columbia legislature recently Colonel Nelson Spencer, Conservative, Vancouver, advocated an international agreement between Canada and the United States to provide for double shifts in all public works, building trades, department and chain stores, and some other industries not competing in world markets. The speaker said his suggestion was offered as a permanent and immediate solution of the unemployment question.

Col. Spencer estimated that 10,000,000 persons were unemployed on this continent, and that there was little hope of them getting work until action was taken to bring in a five or six hour day, and so split up the jobs available for men and women. He asked the legislature to consider the advisability of requesting Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, Dominion Prime Minister, to confer with President Hoover of the United States to see if an international conference could be summoned to bring the question immediately under review.

Double shifts in the public works of Canada alone, he said, would absorb 100,000 unemployed within 30 days.

Some people, at least, are red because they're green.—Nashville Recorder.

"He thought it was a shame they had to wear such heavy shoes."

This is the time of year when they begin sending you illustrated seed catalogs so that you may see what the things you planted last year would have looked like if they had come up.—Boston Herald.

A young bride walked into a drug store and approached the clerk timidly.

"The baby tonic you advertise—" she began—does it really make babies bigger and stronger?"

"We sell a lot of it," replied the clerk, "and we've never had a complaint."

"Well, I'll take a bottle," said the bride after a moment, and went out.

In five minutes she was back. She got the drugist into a corner and whispered into his ear—

"I forgot to ask about this baby tonic," she said under her breath. "Who takes it, me or my husband?"

"I do," said Sony suddenly. "I'll back; you answer pie if you want one."

"I rather think my digestion won't stand for it," he replied. And besides, I must go home and get ready for my guest. I'll come back later and find out what you hear from the man."

"Mrs. Hastings. Just now Julie's waiting for my orders. It's fine to see this man of yours about again, isn't it?"

He turned away, while Sony slid down the steps to join him, slipping his little hand into James Halliday's as confidently as he would have put it into Nick's.

"I got a oven where I bake 'em," he said slyly. "Daddy made me. I'll show you 'fore you go home."

"Gay," murmured Nick Halliday, "you ought to have seen Sony's face when the kid offered him that pie! I don't believe he ever played in his life—or if he did he's forgotten how. But it's fine of him to do so much for that little girl."

Gay didn't answer. She was watching James Halliday bending above the pile of stoves that was Sony's oven. In the silence she heard her little boy exclaiming: "You put 'em there first, and then brown 'em on the top, same as Mummy does; only me can't have matches. Daddy says me can't have matches. I says they're sun-baked, and the flavor's more 'licious that I'll have. Some day when you got time I'll let you make one."

"Thanks," said James Halliday.

a young girl wants—and she's still a girl, you know, in spite of her little family."

"I think you might give her something now and then, Mary. Gay's not the sort who would take offense. Can't you pretend you got them for yourself and they were—well—too small or something?"

Mary Maxwell glanced down at her generous proportions, and smiled at her husband's naive suggestion.

"I fear, my dear, that Gay would see through a subterfuge like that. Johnny, do you suppose old Mr. Bartlett gives her anything?"

"It wouldn't surprise me; though clothes are the last item he would notice."

"I don't know. Those days he was here with the babies he noticed everything. He's a wonderful old man. I wish he'd give Gay an allowance."

"Well, I don't," John Maxwell spoke with decision. "There's nothing better for a man than having to scratch gravel to provide for his wife and children. In my opinion Nick's marriage has been the making of him. Not that he wasn't all right before; but he needed ballast, and Gay provides that in just the right amount. I shouldn't want Simon Bartlett to do too much for them."

"Well," sighed Mary, with a thought for the days when she herself had longed for the unattainable, "I suppose you're right, and possibly Mr. Bartlett agreed with you. I feel sure there's nothing he wouldn't do for them if he thought best."

"This was true. It sometimes tore Simon's heart not to lift all Gay's financial burdens. Only his shrewd good sense kept him from doing it. He had, however, taken care of the bills incurred by Nick's illness, saying when Gay protested, 'It's only an aid, dearie. Better owe me than the doctor. He needs it more'n I do; and Nick can pay me back any time it comes handy.'"

"But I've hundred dollars you gave me, Uncle Sim. That'll pay some of it. I can't go into debt to anyone, you know, and spend the money for silly clothes."

"I ain't askin' you to spend it for silly clothes. Clothes ain't silly if they make a woman look right to her man. It ain't often I give a present and tell folks just what they go to do with it. That ain't no way to do it; but this is different. Run along now, and do your shopping. If you don't, I'll do it for you, and there'll be a preliminary conference at home."

MAGIC BAKING POWDER

Most women find it difficult to think up new ideas for attractive meals. This one, suggested by Miss Katherine M. Caldwell, cookery author of Canadian Home Journal, Toronto, is therefore sure to please.

LUNCHEON MENU
Cheese and Vegetable Soufflé with Cream Sauce
Buttered Whole Wheat Toast
Sweet Pickles
Hot Raspberry Syrup
Chase & Sanborn's Tea

For afternoon tea, there is nothing finer than this Magic Baking Powder, which, when mixed with a tiny cup of sugar, buttered and served piping hot, with a cup of perfect tea.

Miss Caldwell says: "Magic Baking Powder is easy to use because it is uniform, high quality and does not require a large amount of sugar. It is also very economical because it has proven that it always gives economy better results."

Mix and sift the dry ingredients. Cut the hard, cold shortening into them with a knife, using a quick, chopping motion. Reduce the hard cold fat to tiny particles with a pastry blender or a steel-pronged fork. When the mixture resembles a very coarse meal, add the liquid, mixing quickly and lightly. Turn out the dough on a slightly floured board; pat it down lightly or roll it to a thickness of about one inch. Shape with a small cutter or cut in square with a floured knife. Dip the small lumps of sugar into syrup from canned or fresh raspberries. Press a lump into each biscuit, forcing it well down so the dough to that it will not run down the sides when baked.

Place the biscuits on a greased pan or baking sheet and bake in a very hot oven, 450° F., 12 to 15 minutes.

to discuss New Calendar

League of Nations Will Debate Question This Year

A serious effort is to be made by the League of Nations at Geneva this year to reform the calendar.

During the last ten days in January and the first ten days in February, a total of 726,000 families joined the collective farms.

The figures show. This migration is the greatest in history. Development of these farms has always been the backbone of the Soviet movement.

Most of the families who have appeared to join the movement came from the Ukrainian Republic, the North Caucasus, the upper and lower Volga and the German republic.

They were expected to move to the farms gradually during the spring in time to get next season's crops planted.

The Well-Dressed Italian

Tights and cylinders are required this season at all big Italian social or governmental functions in the day-time. Invitations, beautifully engraved, are going around with the words "Tights with cylinders are obligatory in the lower left corner."

"Tights" referring to the close fit of the English morning coat. And the cylinder is a top hat.

Little Helps For This Week

"They helped every one of his neighbors, and every one said to his brother, 'Be of good courage.'"

When no low thoughts of self intrude, Angels adjust our rights; And love that seeks its selfish goal Dies in its own delights.

How much we take, how little give— Yet every life is meant To help all lives; each man should live For all men's betterment.

Each of us is bound to make the small circle in which he lives better and happier; each of us is bound to see that out of that small circle the widest good may flow.

"Oh, Gerald," she exclaimed "how wonderful you are. It's doing it!"

to discuss New Calendar

League of Nations Will Debate Question This Year

A serious effort is to be made by the League of Nations at Geneva this year to reform the calendar.

During the last ten days in January and the first ten days in February, a total of 726,000 families joined the collective farms.

The figures show. This migration is the greatest in history. Development of these farms has always been the backbone of the Soviet movement.

Most of the families who have appeared to join the movement came from the Ukrainian Republic, the North Caucasus, the upper and lower Volga and the German republic.

They were expected to move to the farms gradually during the spring in time to get next season's crops planted.

The Well-Dressed Italian

Tights and cylinders are required this season at all big Italian social or governmental functions in the day-time. Invitations, beautifully engraved, are going around with the words "Tights with cylinders are obligatory in the lower left corner."

"Tights" referring to the close fit of the English morning coat. And the cylinder is a top hat.

Little Helps For This Week

"They helped every one of his neighbors, and every one said to his brother, 'Be of good courage.'"

When no low thoughts of self intrude, Angels adjust our rights; And love that seeks its selfish goal Dies in its own delights.

How much we take, how little give— Yet every life is meant To help all lives; each man should live For all men's betterment.

Every human being whom we approach should be the better for us— William Ellery Channing.

Each of us is bound to make the small circle in which he lives better and happier; each of us is bound to see that out of that small circle the widest good may flow.

"Oh, Gerald," she exclaimed "how wonderful you are. It's doing it!"

PARLIAMENT IS OPENED WITH MUCH CEREMONY

Ottawa, Ont.—History was made in the senate chamber of Canada's parliament buildings. For the first time since Confederation, a Canadian acted as representative of His Majesty the King, in opening parliament, when Rt. Hon. Lyman P. Duff, administrator and acting chief justice of the Supreme Court of Canada, read the Speech from the Throne.

Despite the absence of the governor-general all the color, the ceremony and the pomp associated with the opening of the Dominion parliament was in evidence. Blowing cannon, brass bands, shining uniforms, beautiful gowns all played their part in the occasion. For the first time since Confederation, a Canadian acted as representative of His Majesty the King, in opening parliament, when Rt. Hon. Lyman P. Duff, administrator and acting chief justice of the Supreme Court of Canada, read the Speech from the Throne.

His Excellency the administrator, arrived amid the booming of guns and the notes of the national anthem. He was escorted to the senate chamber, taking the usual route on the vice-regal throne. Round him stood or sat representatives of the government, the army, navy and air force, the courts, foreign governments, galleries were crowded.

In the meantime, the commons had gathered in their own chamber, the scene of many doughy battles in days gone by. They waited for five or ten minutes, then, in a friendly conversation, greeting, and handshaking. Hon. Ernest Lapointe, former minister of justice, just received from an illness, was the target for many friendly greetings from those on both sides of the House.

At last came the speaker's knocks on the door. The sergeant-at-arms hurried to open and admit the gentleman under the black rod conveying the summons to the senate. Led by Hon. George Black, speaker, the commons trooped through the marble paved corridor to the red chamber, filling all available space and jostling each other good naturedly as they went along. Then the speaker was read.

It contained certain interesting declarations, although following along lines already forecast. The expected tariff revision was announced, but only "incidental adjustments" to present British preference schedules will be made.

Legislation will be introduced to create a tariff board. This is in line with announcements made by the prime minister some time ago.

Introduction of radio legislation is postponed pending decision of the courts on the question of jurisdiction. Estimates will be cut down. Action of some kind with respect to old age pensions, aid to agriculture, technical education and highway construction was forecast. Further assistance will be given in the marketing of Canadian wheat. Amendments to the Naturalization Act and to the Copyright Act, and a bill to provide for the more effective control of national finance" will be introduced.

The speech contained an optimistic declaration with respect to the future of Canada, and an assertion that the tariff changes made at the past session had already proved beneficial.

Having listened to the speech in both official languages, members of the Commons returned to their own chamber. A slight delay followed while the prime minister was donning the Windsor uniform and donning less ceremonial clothing. His entrance was the signal for an evocation from his followers.

Gasoline Prices Reduced

Cut Is Announced in Prices For Eastern Canada

Montreal, Que.—Gasoline prices in Ontario, Quebec and the Maritime provinces were reduced this morning. The reductions follow: Toronto, the Island of Montreal, and principal cities in Western Ontario, 2½ cents per gallon; elsewhere in the provinces of Quebec and Ontario, 1½ cents per gallon; Maritime provinces, one-half cent per gallon.

The changes were announced by John Irwin, president of McColl-Promont Oil Company, who said all refiners had decided on the change. It was the second downward revision of prices in about a month, and London, England.—The action of Empire Marketing Board after fruiting in Canada to demonstrate work being done by the board in promotion of the sale of British products in Britain is being considered by the government, Rt. Hon. Z. H. Thomas, secretary for Dominion affairs, stated.

To Assist Farmers

Government Grants For Promotion Of Cattle Raising

Ottawa, Ont.—Government grants for the promotion of cattle raising in Western Canada were announced by Hon. Robert Weir, Minister of Agriculture. With a view to assisting farmers to establish themselves in the breeding of cattle for either beef or dairy purposes, the government will pay freight charges on carload lots of accredited stock from Eastern Canada.

Freight charges will be refunded. Mr. Weir stated, providing the consignees forward to the acting livestock commissioner at Ottawa, the receipted freight bill and a formal statement showing that conditions attached to the grants have been complied with. In order to benefit, the purchaser must show that the carload consisted of at least 12 head of female cattle, not under eight months and not over five years of age.

Only cattle that have been declared by a Dominion veterinarian to be free from tuberculosis or other diseases may be included in a shipment and the animals must be shown to be of merit from a producing standpoint. The new policy goes into effect immediately.

Railway Asking Fifty Million Stock Issue

C.P.R. Has Forwarded Official Notice To Shareholders

Official notice to this effect has been forwarded to the shareholders.

Toronto, Ont.—"While no direct explanation was forthcoming to explain why the Canadian Pacific should require an additional $50,000,000, if approved, it is generally understood that it indicates a continuation of the company's expansion programme," the Mail and Empire says.

"It has been known for some time that the Canadian Pacific plans expansion of its rail service through the Canada west," the newspaper continued.

Wheat Exports Increase

Ottawa, Ont.—Wheat is moving freely through export channels, according to a report issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. During the seven months ended February 28, exports totalled 38,594,000 bushels, as against 35,420,000 bushels in the corresponding period a year ago.

Shipments of Canadian wheat from United States ports are not included. Despite the heavier volume, lower wheat prices kept the total value down, the figure being $11,175,000, as against $11,717,000 of the total value of 90,746,000 bushels went to the United Kingdom, 7,722,000 bushels to the Netherlands, and 50,125,000 to other countries.

New York.—The Canadian dollar sold above par March 11, for the second time this year, being quoted in the money market here at 1.04 of one per cent premium.

NAVAL ACCORD IS MADE PUBLIC IN LONDON

London, England.—Limitation of French and Italian naval programs until 1936 is the subject of the terms of the British-French-Italian naval accord, made public here.

But even more important than the technical provisions in the opinion of the three governments concerned, the agreement brings European peace nearer, closer and provides a point of departure for the disarmament conference at Geneva next year.

The accord covers building programs for battleships, cruisers, aircraft-carriers and submarines. In substance as follows:

Battleships—Both France and Italy are bound to limit to complete before December 1, 1936, two capital ships whose displacement shall not exceed 23,333 tons, and whose gun calibre shall not exceed 12 inches.

Cruisers—Both nations agree that after completion of the 1930 class they will build no more big cruisers with armament larger than six inch guns. In the small cruiser category they agree that tonnage of new construction to be completed shall not exceed the tonnage which is replaceable in this category before December 31, 1936.

Aircraft-carriers—Each nation may build 24,000 tons in this category.

Submarines—Both countries agree not to include any submarines in the 1931 programme, and not to lay down any further submarine tonnage before 1933.

Essence of the agreement is maintenance of the status quo in tonnage ratios. France retaining an estimated superiority of 150,000 tons.

The terms were made public here in the form of a memorandum to parliament by Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, British Foreign Secretary, and Rt. Hon. A. V. Alexander, First Lord of the Admiralty, who achieved the agreement in conference with representatives of France and Italy.

Work For Unemployed

Says More Relief Money Earned In Manitoba Than Any Other Western Province

Winnipeg, Man.—Hon. W. R. Chubb, director of relief projects, replied to Conservative charges that Dominion government money had been withheld from unemployed in Manitoba with an assertion that more unemployment relief money had been earned in Manitoba than any other western province. He told the legislature that projects financed jointly by the Dominion, province and municipalities had been started promptly last fall and would be continued in the spring.

This province, said Mr. Chubb, had led the way in providing jobs for the unemployed. Instead of money being withheld, it had been paid out in late fall and winter construction. More would go to men now out of jobs when some of the largest projects were started in the spring.

By using Dominion Government relief money in constructing Manitoba links of the Trans-Canada Highway, Mr. Chubb said more men had been employed than if the province had alone the work done. A "wider and better" road would be the result, he added.

Rules Of Living

YOUTH ASKS FOUR COMMANDMENTS TO HIS FOLLOWERS

Almahadad, India. — Mahatma Gandhi gave four commandments to his followers recently. When they asked him what their conduct should be he replied: "Don't tell lies." "Don't use abusive language." "Don't smoke." "Don't eat sweets."

He spoke plaintively, "How about tea," and Gandhi replied with a broad smile, "You may drink tea. Drink it from the River Saranathi." The Saranathi is the holy river of Gujarat.

POOL ELEVATOR PROBE IS ASKED FOR MANITOBA

Winnipeg, Man.—Charges that Premier Whitney Pool elevated and privileged their farmer-shareholders of "enormous sums" through overages and under-grading may be probed by the Manitoba provincial government.

Premier John Bracken had before him for consideration two requests for the appointment of a royal commission to inquire into the operation of the Pool elevators. One was from J. R. Murray, vice-president of the Alberta Pacific Grain Company, Limited, the other was delivered from Colin H. Burrell, president of the Manitoba Wheat Pool.

With both the accused and accused denouncing a governmental investigation, it seemed certain that a commission would be appointed, although grain authorities here thought the premier might wait action of the Dominion government, which it has been rumored, soon will appoint commissioners to conduct a probe into grain marketing.

Premier Bracken refused comment on the letters. He said the government must have time to study the matter before announcing the stand to be taken. "I have nothing to say at present," he told newspaper interviewers.

"That should be satisfactory," said Mr. Murray, when advised that the president of the co-operative organization had requested a commission to investigate. "My charges are not an attack on the Pool by the grain trade," he said. "I sought the probe on my own responsibility, in the interests of my many good friends among the farmers."

Mr. Burrell branded the charges of "extravagantly high expenses," "absolute lies" in his letter to the premier, and urged that a commission be appointed "as soon as possible" to probe the allegations.

In a letter to Mr. Bracken, Mr. Murray made his charges against the Pool elevator operation, and urged a government inquiry. He charged that farmers were "invaded" into becoming shareholders in Pool elevators, had been deprived of large sums through overages and under-grading to meet "extravagantly high expenses" and the latter had been concealed from shareholders by "book-keeping devices."

The letter from Mr. Burrell to the premier made: "I have then in the press a letter from Mr. Murray, former manager of the United Grain Growers, in which he charges the members of the Pool elevator associations, and he demands you to institute an investigation into Manitoba Pool Elevators, Limited."

These charges are absolutely false, and I am instructed by the board of directors of the Manitoba Pool Elevators, Limited, acting on behalf of the members and patrons of the local Pool elevator situation, to request you to have a commission appointed to investigate the above mentioned charges as soon as possible."

WORK OF IRWIN IN INDIA PRAISED BY BALDWIN

London, England.—In the autumn of this year, another Indian conference will meet in London, England—with the members of the Indian National Congress participating to consider the constitution of a new Federal India. The British Conservatives will not participate, but they will be ready to be consulted on Indian policy, nor do they rule out Conservative participation in the autumn conference.

So much energy has been drained on India in the House of Commons. Turbanned figures here and there in the galleries lent an exotic touch to the scene. Lord Irwin, the viceroy, and Gandhi swept across the India stage, but it was the battle of Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin, Conservative leader, with the Indian National Congress challenge going startlingly across the floor which held and gripped the House.

As he threw down his challenge, Mr. Baldwin turned halfway around towards the packed benches of his followers. He would, he declared, approach the Indian question with no niggardly spirit.

But if there are those in the Conservative party, he proceeded, who would approach this subject in a niggardly and grudging spirit, who would refuse to meet the challenge from a reluctant hand—if they are in the majority—then in God's name let them choose another leader.

Mr. Baldwin went on, seemingly reassured by the thunderous cheers that greeted his remarks, when he let them refrain from throwing further difficulties in the way of those who have undertaken an almost super-human task.

When Mr. Baldwin quoted from a speech delivered by Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, he called "old-hand" on the Indian situation a dozen years ago, in which Mr. Churchill pleaded for co-operation between the two countries, he seemed to score over his political colleague who sat only a few seats away from his leader.

In his subsequent speech, Mr. Churchill made no reference to Baldwin's challenge. To the accompaniment of ironical Labor cheers he declared his agreement with Mr. Baldwin's policy against Conservative participation in a round-table conference. Mr. Churchill did not rule out Conservative participation in the London conference.

But while the leader and Mr. Churchill followed the same path so far, they differed widely over the Irwin-Gandhi conversations.

The changing tides said Mr. Baldwin, was changing and had changed. Lord Irwin had reached an agreement with Mr. Baldwin, he believed, could have been reached by no other Englishman. It had definitely enlarged the area of goodwill and co-operation in India.

"I believe now, as I believed last year," declared the Conservative leader, "that, if my co-operation G. D. Robertson said in a previous speech, the whole problem of government in India would be insoluble and impossible, and I, for one, would not accept the responsibility of attempting it."

Many Assisted Under Joint Relief Scheme

Labor Minister Issues Statement On Work Given Unemployed

Ottawa, Ont.—The joint Dominion-provincial unemployment-relief scheme which came into operation last September, has provided work for at least 231,261 persons, Senator G. D. Robertson said in a previous speech. This figure did not include the total for Quebec province but did include the work made by men given work through special efforts of the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways.

The reports from Saskatchewan indicate that the total number of men given employment was 29,524 up to February 28, 279,174 man-days work having been provided. In addition 14,151 individuals were given direct relief.

The Chronicler Jumps Up and Runs

The San Francisco earthquake cured hundreds of cripples. They weren't as badly crippled as they thought they were. They did not know they could run until their houses began to shake.

We are depressed. We are afraid of the future. We are full of fears.

We have a considerable amount of the gold of the world, a large share of the machinery and a large proportion of the automobiles and some of the sky-scrappers.

We have a wonderful mineral and timberland country that will produce millions of dollars in lead, copper, iron, etc.

We are ruled more by ideas and less by tradition than any other people in the world. We have usually done what we thought we could do.

How can it be possible that a progressive nation of 10,000,000 people can be felled by the speculations of a little handful of men in Wall Street?

When a horse balks, the balk is in his head, not in his legs. He moves on when he thinks he will. And when a Canadian is depressed, the slump is in his head.

There is nothing serious to prevent him from making money if he thinks he will.
